APRIL 2009

The mission of the Wahoo Public Library is to offer all people a safe, accessible and attractive place vital to lifelong learning.

Worlds Connect @ Your Library

Come in and help us celebrate National Library week April 13-18. National Library Week is an annual celebration of the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians. It is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians and to promote library use and support. All types of libraries - school, public, academic and special - participate.

Correctional Facility Outreach Program

The Wahoo Public Library and the Saunders County Law Enforcement and Judicial Center are joining forces to bring a computer and reference and recreational reading materials to the inmate library. The computer will be used for educational resources, giving the inmates the opportunity to begin an educational journey. Grants for these resources came from the Eastern Library System and Nebraska Library Commission. Grant funds will also be used to purchase bi-lingual Bibles and GED workbooks.

Libraries Work Because We Do!

National Library Workers Day is celebrated on April 14th. NLWD is a day for library staff, users, administrators and Friends groups to recognize the valuable contributions made by all library workers. To help celebrate this day, you can let everyone know that your library employees are stars by submitting their names to the National Library Workers Day Stars Web Site, sponsored by the American Library Association—Allied Professional Association. Nominations will be featured until June 30, 2009 at www.ala-apa.org/about/nlwdstars.html. Anyone can nominate, so go and tell everyone about our stars!

Check out these creative kids!

The 4th graders from Wahoo Public

Elementary worked on quilts while studying Nebraska History. On display in the library's meeting room are three paper quilts that represent Nebraska history made by those 4th graders. Make sure you come in and check them out!

Congressional Record

The Congressional Record of the 111th Congress is now available for library patrons to view or check-out. The library was able to receive this publication for free by contacting Senator Ben Nelson's office. The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings & debates of the U.S. Congress. It is published daily when they are in session.

Come and Read with Us!

The Library book club is going strong, but there's always room for new members. This month we are reading Isn't It Romantic by Ron Hansen. Come in today and borrow a copy of the book and then join us on April 23rd at 7:00pm to discuss it. Thanks to the Bellevue Public Library we have at least 10 copies of each book.
