- Cookie Lee Jewelry
- Discovery Toys
- Longaberger Baskets
- Momma's Milkshake
- The Pampered Chef
- Partylite Candles and Gifts
- Premier Jewelry
- Southern Living At Home
- Stampin' Up
- Stanley Home Products
- Tastefully Simple
- Tupperware
- Usborne Books
- Homemade Baked Goods and Crafts

Mark your calendars for this one-stop event!

Need some new books to read?

Then we have an event for you! It's time for the annual Friends of the Wahoo Library Book Sale! We will have the meeting rooms packed with books sorted in easy to find categories and at affordable prices!

The Sneak Preview Sale starts on October 23rd from 6:00pm—8:00pm. There is a $5.00 admission charge for this night, but if you are a Friends member, it is free! The sale starts Friday October 24 and runs thru October 25th during regular library hours.

We are still gladly accepting donations at Wahoo Super,

Sun Mart, St. Wenceslaus School and Wahoo Elementary as well as at the library. Remember all donations are tax deductible!

Birthday benefits the library!

To celebrate the birthday of Rachel Steele the girls opted to forgo their presents and asked their friends to bring a new book to donate to the library! The guests included Megan Steele, Courtney and Madison Oligmuller, Taylor Luben, Reagan Benes, Katelyn

Urban, Deena Stang, Sydney Barnes. What a way to help out our library! Thanks to all of you for your support and generous donations!

Teens—Want a reading challenge?

If so, stop in the week of October 13th and pick up your Wrestle Mania Reading Challenge Packet. You'll be asked to read 10 items starting Oct. 13th—January 12th. You'll also be creating a book mark to enter into a contest that may win you a DVD, $2000 towards new teen books at the library and a trip to Wrestle Mania! See Carrie for all the details.
